

Site Manager

Don't have a resume, don't worry - call Anthony on 0466 251 789 for a confidential chat.

If you are looking for variety of work, stability, work life balance and long-term employment, with the opportunity to continue to develop your career, then we would like to hear from you! Impero Constructions has a strong pipeline of ongoing and up & coming work means that we are growing. This growth has created exciting opportunities for a range of site and project related position vacancies across the company.

Benefits

- Generous salary based on experience + super!
- Permanent role with career progression!
- Great company culture & enjoyable workplace environment!
- Brand new state of the art office based in Darlinghurst!

The Impero Difference

Work for Impero Constructions and you will be joining a company with 15+ years of proven excellence specialising in high-end architecturally designed residential projects across Sydney. Building an outstanding reputation over the years through numerous industry awards, our staff are a team of professionals committed to bringing value to our clients as well as providing creative and practical solutions that meet or exceed the needs of each project. We offer our clients the highest quality building services which sets Impero apart from the rest.

Culture

Enjoy working for this family orientated company where team work and a great work culture is a requirement. We aim for our staff to have a good work-life balance and are renowned for the long-term tenure of our employees.

About the role

Reporting to the Project Manager, the Site Manager is responsible for the delivery of projects within scope, designated timeframes and budget ensuring the project remains on target by maintaining an accurate construction program.

Key Responsibilities

- Oversee, manage and deliver projects onsite from beginning to end
- Effective onsite management of all site resources including subcontractors, trades, staff and equipment
- Delivery of projects safely, efficiently and effectively through meeting the project success criteria's of stakeholder relationships, time, cost, quality, safety and process compliance
- Adhere to, improve upon and maintain the construction program
- Carry out safety audits, tool box talks and site coordination meetings
- Provide practical solutions to daily on-site challenges and obstacles
- Lead, manage and mentor team members to achieve their full potential and ensure behaviours are aligned with the company's values
- Build and maintain strong relationships with key stakeholders, both internal and external
- Ensure Occupational Health and Safety is adhered to
- Regularly communication with the Project Manager

Skills & experience

- Proven experience as a Site Manager/Foreman/Supervisor
- Strong communication and organisational skills
- Proactive management of trades and the project programme
- Show drive and an excellent attitude in regards to safety and achieving time/quality/cost targets
- Excellent building knowledge and up to date construction methodology

Apply Now

To apply or to see other job opportunities visit our website at www.imperoconstructions.com.au/career

Alternatively, you can send your resume to career@imperoconstructions.com.au or call Anthony 0466 251 789 for a confidential chat.